

College Ethos and Aims

Norton College Worcester and Tewkesbury is committed to the development of each individual's ability through the use of personalised learning programmes. These are an essential part of their journey into the world of work, and to becoming responsible purposeful citizens taking up their rightful place in society.

Norton College will do this by:-

- Improving self esteem
- Building respect for self and others
- Enabling responsible attitudes
- Developing independence.